Directions: Use the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Population, Refugees, and Migration statistics on the admissions of refugees in 2010 to answer the following questions.

1. What are the three main regions that the United States accepts refugees from? How many refugees did the United States accept from each region?
2. What were the three main countries that the United States accepted refugees from? (list the number of refugees as well)
3. What were the push factors in 2010 that was forcing people to migrate from each of those three countries? (Will require internet research, list the website where you got the information for each country's refugees)
4. Based upon the numbers (or lack thereof) from this spreadsheet which regions of the world seemed to be the most stable in 2010? Explain your reasoning.
