

Human Geography

Tracking Urbanization Webquest

Name:

Section:

Score: ____/5

---

Directions: Using the map that tracks Urban growth on the BBC (link can be found on class website) answer the following questions.

1. How many megacities are there with populations over 10 million in 1955?
2. Where are those cities primarily located? (list 2 regions, not just the names of the cities)
3. Around what year does the world population shift from primarily urban to primarily rural? (What year does the World population reach about 50% Urban)
4. In 2005 how many cities are there over 10 million?
5. Where are most of megacities from 2005 located? (list 3 regions)
6. In 2005 what is the largest city in the world?
7. By 2015 how many megacities are there expected to be in the world?
8. Where are the Megacities primarily located? (On Which 3 continents do they have the most)