

AP European History

Impacts of the Industrial Revolution

Name:

Section:

Score: ____/5

---

Directions: Use the crash course World History link on the website and the handout called "The Industrial Revolution and the Standard of Living" to answer the following questions.

Crash Course: Coal, Steam, and the Industrial Revolution

Direction: Watch the crash course world history on the Industrial revolution and answer the following questions.

1. What are the Eurocentric explanations for why the Industrial Revolution happened in Europe?
- Why are they not necessarily true?

2. Why was coal so important to Industrialization?

3. Why were wages a catalyst for industrialization?

The Industrial Revolution and the Standard of Living Questions

Directions: For each author explain their perception of Industrialization of society. Do they view it as a good thing or bad thing? What impact did industrialization have on society?

1. John and Barbara Hammond
2. Thomas S. Ashton
3. Eric J. Hobsbawm
4. Ronald M. Hartwell