

AP Human Geography Using Racial Dot Maps

Name: Section:

Score: _____/5

Directions: Complete the following questions using the Cooper Center's "Dot Map" and the New York Time's site "Mapping America."

| Cooper Centers: | Dot | Ma | p |
|-----------------|-----|----|---|
|-----------------|-----|----|---|

- 1. Compare urban centers to rural areas in terms of diversity. Cite specific examples to help better explain the differences.
- 2. What general conclusions can you make about the differences between the racial diversity of urban areas versus suburban(areas around the downtown/metropolitan areas) areas?
- 3. Which major city (Washington D.C., Chicago, New York, Los Angeles) seems to have the most racial integration? The most racial segregation? Explain your answers.

New York Times: Mapping America

- 4. Which Census tract seems to be the center of the Chinatown on the Island of Manhattan in New York City?
- 5. In Detroit, Michigan what road serves as the major separation between the predominantly African American, and the predominantly white neighborhoods?
- 6. What major racial "minority" (non-White) groups are most present in the Southwest states? Northwest? Midwest? Northeast? Southeast?
- 7. Why is it ridiculous to refer to non-whites as "minorities" in urban centers? Use Miami, Florida as an example.